July 22, 2018 - Jonah: An Unlikely Prophet

Melrose - Scott Newman Greenwood - Beth Tapscott

When God saw what they did and how they turned from their evil ways, he relented and did not bring on them the destruction he had threatened.

But to Jonah this seemed very wrong, and he became angry. He prayed to the Lord, "Isn't this what I said, Lord, when I was still at home? That is what I tried to forestall by fleeing to Tarshish. I knew that you are a gracious and compassionate God, slow to anger and abounding in love, a God who relents from sending calamity. Now, Lord, take away my life, for it is better for me to die than to live."

But the Lord replied, "Is it right for you to be angry?"

Jonah 3:10 - 4:4 (NIV)

SCHOOL PARTNERSHIPS

A Letter From T.C. Cherry

Dear Broadway United Methodist Church,

I would like to begin with a heartfelt thank you for the wonderful blessings your church provides to the students and staff of T.C. Cherry Elementary School! Over the years, your gifts of prayer, time mentoring, and monetary supplements have provided our students and staff with unparalleled support. T.C. Cherry is a better school because of Broadway.

Looking forward to the 2018-2019 school year, I'd like to encourage church members to pray about becoming a school mentor. As many of you know, our student population is very diverse. We have students who need additional support to help them be successful in school. For some, it is the need for a strong adult figure in their life to help improve their self-worth. Others need a gentle, loving nudge of encouragement to be their best.

Every year, TC Cherry reflects on the mentoring program, and we try to find ways to make the program even more successful. This year, we plan to focus on social skills; we want to teach our students how to interact with adults. Not all children are comfortable around adults, and we feel that by teaching basic skills, the mentor and student will benefit.

At TC Cherry, we believe in the old adage "It takes a village to raise children." We are proud to say that Broadway is part of our village!

Blessings,
Kory Twyman
