SERMON NOTES

The Merton Prayer by Thomas Merton

My Lord God,
I have no idea where I am going.
I do not see the road ahead of me.
I cannot know for certain where it will end, nor do I really know myself, and the fact that I think I am following your will does not mean that I am actually doing so.

But I believe that the desire to please you does in fact please you.
And I hope I have that desire in all that I am doing.
I hope that I will never do anything apart from that desire.
And I know that if I do this you will lead me by the right road, though I may know nothing about it.

Therefore will I trust you always though I may seem to be lost and in the shadow of death.
I will not fear, for you are ever with me,
and you will never leave me to face my perils alone.

CELEBRATION STORY

Special Music Sunday: The Gospel Mass

On Pentecost Sunday (6/9), the BUMC Chancel Choir & Band will present the Gospel Mass by Robert Ray at the 8:15 and 11:00 services.

This major work integrates the historic roots of the Church with more contemporary forms of worship. The Latin words and service form, used by medieval Catholic churches, are translated and reimagined in an American gospel setting.

Come ready to worship, rejoice, and experience this music and liturgy!
