CELEBRATION STORY

School Partnerships

Communities are transformed when their children succeed. This idea is what motivated Broadway to partner with T.C. Cherry and Cumberland Trace Elementary Schools. Broadway extends hope into our city by providing these schools with much more than monetary support. Each year many adults from the church make a commitment to mentor a child, eating and spending an hour a week with a student. Over those meals, they serve as caring adults who listen, encourage, and see the uniqueness of each child.

The 2019-2020 school year has brought Broadway more opportunities to support the local schools. Through Stuff the Bus Foundation and Boys to Men Leadership Group there are many ways you can take part in Broadway's School Partnerships.

BECOME A MENTOR

You can help mentor a student at T.C. Cherry or Cumberland Trace Elementary. If you can commit to "one hour, once a week," then you can become a mentor. Use the card inside your bulletin to sign up today.

BE A PART OF THE BOYS TO MEN LEADERSHIP GROUP

Men can now sign up to mentor and help young men prepare for the day at schools around the county. Use the card inside your bulletin to sign up today.

DONATE SCHOOL SUPPLIES

Help make sure the students of Southern Kentucky have the resources they need to succeed in school. Pick up a shopping list at the Welcome Desk, purchase supplies, and drop them in the Stuff the Bus boxes found in the Welcome Areas.

PRAYER

Pray faithfully for the schools, students and staff.
