

\\ BUMC MISSIONARIES: THE GUEST FAMILY

At Broadway we are intentional about partnering with families and guiding our children as they grow in Christ. We had the honor of partnering with Ashley and the Bland family, watching her grow in her commitment to God and to her church. When Justin Guest came along, we watched them both grow and follow God's call to the mission field. Justin & Ashley Guest are not just missionaries, but are also very much a part of the Broadway family. The Guests are committed to their church as we are committed to them.

Their journey has been amazing to watch and we are excited for them in their new placement in California. They recently began serving at The Center, a ministry in downtown Stockton, California. They help run an after school program to help local kids break generational cycles of struggle. They provide snacks, homework help, mentoring, and play games with the kids. They also have Bible lessons so the children can know God and gain skills that will help them succeed in life.
